

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR CRITICAL STUDIES IN IMPROVISATION

Tuition for Graduate Credit

University of Guelph and Memorial University Graduate Students attending the Summer Institute for academic credit are required to register with the University of Guelph or Memorial University as well as the Summer Institute. Tuition and fees are paid to the University according to the tuition rates set by the University. The Summer Institute Scholar Fee is required by all course participants (see below).

Note: University of Guelph students may register in UNIV6040 Critical Studies in Improvisation in either the summer or fall term.

Memorial students may register in Music 7806/Education 6920.

Graduate Students registered at another Ontario university and wishing to obtain course accreditation should apply to the Visiting Graduate Student Plan. Instructions and application form are available at: <http://ocgs.cou.on.ca/content/objects/Application.pdf>

Graduate Students from other universities will be required to pay the Summer Institute Summer Scholar fee (see below). They are encouraged to apply to their home institution for reimbursement of this fee and for possible academic credit.

Summer Institute Scholar Fee

Participants who wish to attend the Summer Institute will pay a fee directly to the Summer Institute. For students auditing the course, no transcript will be issued but participants will receive a certificate of attendance.

Summer Institute Scholar Fee: $300 CDN

Payable to: The University of Guelph, 042 MacKinnon Building, University of Guelph, Guelph, Ontario, N1G 2W1

Travel and Accommodation Bursaries

The Institute for Critical Studies in Improvisation offers bursaries to assist out of town graduate students by defraying travel and lodging costs. A limited number of bursaries are available, and will be awarded on a need and merit basis. To apply, check off the slot on the application form.
